RE: DBE Certification No. DB2001-0032-2010

Dear Ms. McAneney:

We are pleased to inform you that your firm's application for certification as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) with the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority (Authority) has been approved. Your company's certification number is shown above. Please note that this certification is only for business activities covered under the following North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code(s):

NAICS	Goods/Services
541512	Computer Systems Design Services
541519	Other Computer Related Services Except, Information Technology Value Added Resellers 150
541511	Custom Computer Programming Services

On an annual basis, you will be required to affirm your certification eligibility status. Any material change that may affect DBE eligibility such as change in your firm's ownership, management, or control must be reported to this office immediately.

If you wish to expand or change your firm's DBE certification to include NAICS codes not listed above, you must send a written request to this office. A firm can be certified for up to five codes. You may be asked to provide additional information concerning your firm's qualifications to perform work in the areas covered by the requested NAICS codes.

The Authority reserves the right to review your firm's DBE certification at any time. If it is determined that your firm no longer qualifies for DBE certification, the Authority will advise of its intent to terminate certification.

Thank you for your interest in doing business with the Authority. Your name has been forwarded to the Authority's Procurement Department to receive E-mail notifications of Authority contract opportunities. We look forward to your participation as a DBE in the Authority's contracting programs. If you have any questions, please contact the Equal Opportunity Programs Department at 703-417-8625.

Sincerely,
