

TechProse Background

Founded in 1982, TechProse works with clients whose competitive advantage depends on effective deployment of the latest technology. TechProse consulting focuses on:

- ◆ Technical Writing (Manuals, Reports, White Papers, Parts Catalogs)
- ◆ Training & Development (eLearning and traditional instructor-led)
- ◆ Corporate Communication
- ◆ Business Analysis & Planning
- ◆ Change Management

TechProse works with clients in the following two ways:

- ◆ Provide one or several specialists as needed
- ◆ Manage an entire project or project area, taking full responsibility for all aspects of the project

TechProse combines customer satisfaction with a consistent growth rate that placed us on the Inc. 500 list of fastest growing privately held U.S. businesses. TechProse has twice won the Award of Excellence from the International Society for Technical Communication and received the Government Technology Conference Best Solutions award for our online collaboration tools.

Inc. 500

With over 80 individuals on payroll, TechProse has delivered on-time, in-budget training, documentation, and applications for biotech, high-tech, government, retail, financial, and utilities clients. From business process analysis to blended learning, we guarantee our work and ensure client satisfaction.
